

Pamela Jett Introduction

Please read verbatim

Our speaker, Pamela Jett, has had a life-long romance with words and their effect on human relationships. As a sought after keynote speaker and executive advisor Pamela helps professionals around the globe communicate and lead more effectively.

After pursuing her Phd in Communication, spending time in prison (as a movie extra) and working as a university professor, Pamela decided to combine her love of the stage with her love of words and share her relentlessly positive message with audiences worldwide.

Please help me welcome Pamela Jett.